

The image shows a modern office space. In the foreground, there are several white, minimalist-style chairs with rounded backs and integrated armrests. They are arranged around a light-colored wooden table. The floor is covered in a dark grey carpet with a subtle, repeating geometric pattern. In the background, a large window provides a view of a city skyline, including a prominent skyscraper with a red crane. The lighting is bright and natural, suggesting daytime. A purple graphic overlay is positioned in the upper right corner, featuring a repeating pattern of small white icons (squares, circles, and lines) and the text "MISSION STREET" in a white, sans-serif font. A small white square is also visible on the right edge of the purple overlay.
